COMMITTEE ON ARMED SERVICES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20510

February 11, 1985

Mr. William Casey
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C.

Arnold Punaro has discussed with [redacted] Legislative Liaison, a request for [redacted] to brief the Senate Arms Control Observer Group on February 19th at 7:45 AM in Room S407 of the Capitol.

STAT

As you know, this group was established on January 3, 1985 pursuant to S. Res. 19 and has been strongly supported by the Majority and Minority Leaders and the President and Secretary of State. The purpose of the group is to serve as official observers on the U.S. delegation to the upcoming arms control negotiations with the Soviet Union.

The group is interested in a session on Soviet arms control compliance and would like to receive a briefing from [redacted] on this subject as it primarily relates to the ABM Treaty, the SALT I Interim Agreement, and the SALT II Treaty. We are also inviting Ambassador Richard Ellis to discuss the role of the Standing Consultative Commission in this area.

STAT

We have asked Arnold to contact [redacted] directly to explain this request and he can be contacted for any further administrative details.

STAT

We appreciate your consideration of this matter.

Ted Stevens
Co-Chairman

Sincerely,

Sam Nunn
Co-Chairman

Senator Robert C. Byrd (Ex-Officio)

THE SECRETARY OF STATE
WASHINGTON

January 5, 1984

Dear Senator Nunn:

I am delighted to learn that you have been named co-chairman of the group of Senate arms control observers. Please accept my congratulations.

I welcome this step by the Senate, which I believe can facilitate and enhance our consultative process and help establish the kind of unity which our nation needs as we approach this issue of such great importance.

We go to Geneva in a positive and constructive attitude. Our aim is to bring about a process of formal negotiations on offensive nuclear systems and defensive systems, including space-related issues. We go with no illusions, however. Should progress not prove possible now, we are fully confident that our position will become widely recognized as reasonable and creative. Whatever the immediate outcome at Geneva, the President's initiative already has provided an approach that inevitably will contribute to the goal of eventually eliminating all nuclear weapons.

I look forward to consulting with you at an early opportunity after my return from Geneva.

Sincerely yours,

George P. Shultz

Sam Nunn,

DOLE, BYRD SELECT SENATE OBSERVERS FOR ARMS TALKS WITH SOVIETS

WASHINGTON -Fulfilling the recommendation of their arms control resolution, unanimously approved by the Senate yesterday, Senate Majority Leader Bob Dole and Senate Minority Leader Robert C. Byrd today announced that a bipartisan group of Senators has been selected to join the official U.S. delegation as observers to any arms control negotiations between the U.S. and the Soviet Union. Although the resolution pledges Senate support for the upcoming Shultz/Gromyko meetings in Switzerland, the newly created observer team will not be going to Geneva.

Dole and Byrd joined together in the arms control resolution on the opening day of the 99th Congress. Their resolution, which hailed the Administration's commitment to arms control and pledged Senate support for the Geneva meetings, called for the respective party leaders in the Senate to appoint a team of Senate observers.

The following members have been appointed:

Chairman: Ted Stevens (R-Alaska)
Co-Chairman: Sam Nunn (D-Ga.)

Malcolm Wallop (R-Wyo.)
Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.)
Richard G. Lugar (R-Ind.)
Don Nickles (R-Okla.)

Claiborne Pell (D-R.I.)
Daniel Patrick Moynihan (D-N.Y.)
Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.)
Albert Gore (D-Tenn.)

Senators Byrd and Dole, or their designees, will serve as ex-officio members of the Senate delegation. Within this group, Senators will serve as observers on a rotating basis, to be determined by the Chairman and Co-Chairman. Senators Dole and Byrd have authorized Senators Stevens and Nunn to work out additional details with the Administration.

"This group of outstanding Senators has the kind of expertise and commitment needed to deal with one of the most important issues facing this nation. Our team underscores the deep interest of the Senate, as an institution, in nuclear arms control," Dole said. "We intend to uphold our constitutionally mandated role in helping shape and confirm our country's arms control policies."

"Any arms control agreement must be supported by a substantial national consensus to stand the test of time," Senator Byrd said. "The Senate's role is central to both the development of that consensus and to the ratification or approval of any treaty or agreement. The Senate will benefit by access to the negotiating sessions established on a regular basis. I believe the informal reactions and views of Senators to any ongoing talks will be of real value to our negotiating team at a time before final decisions on specific issues are made."
